LOCATION: The Żupnicza 18 apartment building is located in the central part of Old Praga, in a well-connected area. Right next to the avant-garde Soho Factory and close to the Warszawa Wschodnia Railway Station. The Neon Museum and SWPS University of Social Sciences and Humanities are just a few hundred meters away.

The area around Soho Factory has been undergoing intensive revitalization in recent years. New housing developments blend seamlessly into the panorama of Old Praga, creating a dynamic and contrasting space. Soho Factory is an avant-garde space for culture and business. Post-industrial buildings have been transformed into artistic spaces, retaining their loft character. Trendy clubs, restaurants, galleries, theaters, and cinemas operate here. Numerous events are organized, offering something for everyone.

BUILDING: This newly constructed residential building on Żupnicza Street, in the Soho by Yareal development, opened in 2021. The building next door houses a grocery store, and the development also features a playground for children. SOHO 18 has been awarded a BREEAM (final) Very Good rating.
